PUBLICATIONS AND BOOKS

A vital aspect of NAMBLA's mission is to inform and educate. We do this in part through our Web site. Our own publishing enterprise has also filled a large part of this mission. In addition, we are always looking for other works that will interest our members and enlighten the world at large. Of course, we do not discount the possibility that the publications we offer will also entertain.

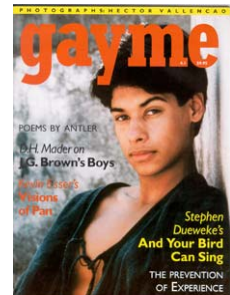

General Publications Available from NAMBLA

Batboys and the World of Baseball: Though scores of gung-ho fans have envied the glamour and the privileged insider's experiences that only a batboy can enjoy, most spectators take him for granted. Neil Isaacs, the author, remedies this situation and gives us a unique view from the perspective of generations of batboys.

232 pages, illustrated, soft cover. Price: $14.95

GAYME: This was an independently produced illustrated magazine published occasionally and distributed by NAMBLA to its members when the publication appeared. There are two issues per volume. Vol. 4, #1 was the last issue published. No other issues were produced. Vol. 1 & 2 are available only in our rare items section. Back issues of the three last numbers are priced at $9.95

KOINOS is an excellent publication featuring fiction, stories, articles, photography and art. Photographs are in color and black and white printed on fine quality glossy paper. Articles are in English and German. This is an added advantage to those wishing to improve their language skills. Koinos is published four times a year. The current issue is #64. A four-issue subscription costs $70.95. Just let us know with which number you wish your subscription to begin.

Some back issues are also available. We have issues #16 – 70. No issues before #16 are available from any distributor. Send $19.75 for each copy ordered. Membership discounts apply on single issues and subscriptions.

Von Gloeden: We have a limited number of Von Gloeden note cards. Five different photos are available. The inside of each card is left blank for your personal greeting. A pack of 10 is $25. An individual card is $3.00 ($1 discount does not apply on single cards).

MADE IN THE USA: Over the years, Renato Corazza, Bulletin editor in the early 80's, has produced a series of photo works he has called Made In The USA. They depict boys of many cultures in their everyday pursuits. Some photos are of nude boys but are well within Federal laws governing prohibited images. These soft cover books are 50 pages in approximately letter size format. Front and rear covers are in color. Other photos are black and white. Renato is a graphic artist, and his books reflect his inimitable style. Those who are familiar with the long out of print The Boy and Boys Will Be Boys will appreciate the appeal of this offer and the excellent value it represents. There are currently eight books in the series, but #1 through 4 are available only from our rare items section. Issues #5 through 8 are $14.95

Alcibiades the Schoolboy: Described as the first gay novel, this 17th Century Italian work of fiction (translated into English) is an erotic dialogue between a boy and his tutor where the latter seduces the boy. 124 pages, soft cover. Price: $ 19.95

The Moralist by Rod Downey: Tom O'Carroll, author of Pedophilia: The Radical Case says "Read it if you dare. The Moralist is brilliant and outrageous. It is about things that matter: art, philosophy, politics, science, and religion. Above all, it is a love story, and one like no other. But be warned: Your settled notions of right and proper conduct could be blown sky high by this controversial oeuvre." 400 pages, soft cover. Price: $ 19.95

Misunderstood Intimacy – A Pastoral Approach to Pedophilia: Published in English by Stichting voor Kerkelijk Sociale Arbeid (Foundation for Church Social Work). This Dutch publication is the product of work done through Pauluskerk (St. Paul's Church) in Rotterdam and its pastor Rev. Hans Visser. It is a work of tolerance and understanding and highly recommended reading. Though the word "pedophilia" has assumed the role of a pejorative in English speaking countries the term has retained a more benign meaning within continental Europe. 84 pages, soft cover. Price: $7.95

Pedophiles on Parade by David Sonenschein: Pedophiles On Parade is the finest analysis of Child Molester Hysteria that we have seen. The author fearlessly reveals how adult villains, child victims, and heroic authority figures are invented and reinforced by the government, the media, and special interest groups with repressive social agendas.

Volume 1, The Monster In the Media, uses data collected over a decade to document popular ideas of adult-youth sexual relations from the mid-1970s into the 1990s, a period now known as the child sexual abuse hysteria. Looking critically at both fiction (including film) and journalism, core elements of villains, victims, and heroes are drawn out and shown to be interconnected. Sources widely distributed as well as those inaccessible to others are examined and tied to a variety of products and processes of American culture to yield the most complete and in-depth study yet available of this crucial period and issue.

Volume 2, The Popular Imagery Of Moral Hysteria, uses the child sex abuse hysteria of the 1980s as a reference point for a far-ranging cultural historical survey of the ways sexual villains, victims, and heroes have been constructed and used in America. Including an extensive and unique chapter on "The Sexual Child" - one of the most avoided and undocumented subjects in history. Pedophiles On Parade is one of the finest exposés we have seen on how "reality" is created, and is must reading for all thinking people. 2-volume set, 570 combined pp, illustrated, indexed, soft cover. Price: $ 39.95

This Too is Love: Each of the twelve stories that make up this work is complete in itself. Yet together they compose a small photo album of one man's struggle to come to terms with his inclinations toward a forbidden love. In the first story the protagonist is a boy himself, and gains the attention of the man who is his swimming instructor. In the succeeding stories this boy has become a man, and we see him as a counselor at an institution for juvenile delinquents, and then as a social worker. 265 pages, soft cover. Price: $ 14.95
